The Learning Disabilities Association of Central New York is a not-for-profit human service agency, founded in 1985, whose mission is to enhance the quality of life for children and adults with learning disabilities and other neurologically based disorders by providing advocacy, programs and educational resources.

LDACNY provides programs including:

- ◆ Educational Consulting for parents of school aged children
- ◆ SAIL (Summer Adventures in Learning) for children with learning disabilities and related disabilities
- ◆ Pathways, job placement and supported employment program
- ◆ SOAR, a young adult social recreation group
- ◆ LIFE, an independent living program with residential habilitation counseling
- ◆ Transition services to plan transition from high school to college or work
